COLONEL CRAIG M. COOPER

Col Craig M. Cooper is the Deputy Commander, 184th Wing, McConnell Air Force Base, Kansas. He advises the Wing Commander responsible for more than 1,300 Airmen who execute a broad spectrum of missions including intelligence, surveillance and reconnaissance, cyber and information operations, and command and control. In addition, the wing fields a full complement of mission and support functions including civil engineering, security forces, medical, logistics, communications, contracting, and force support.

Col Cooper enlisted in the Kansas Air National Guard in 1989. He graduated from Friends University in 1998, with a Bachelor of Science in Computer Information Systems then graduated with his Masters in Information Systems Management in 2001, and subsequently received his commission through the Academy of Military Science in 2004. Since commissioning, he has served as a Network Team Chief for the 177th Information Aggressor Squadron (177IAS), a National Security Agency certified, USCYBERCOM accredited Cyber and Information Operations Red Team, the Chief of Maintenance for the 134th Air Control Squadron (134ACS), the Director of Operations for both the 177IAS and 127th Cyberspace Operations Squadron (127COS), and the Commander of the 127COS, 177IAS, and 184th Regional Support Group (184RSG). Prior to his current position, he was the Commander of the 184th Cyberspace Operational Group (184COG), McConnell AFB KS.

Col Cooper has deployed in support of OPERATION NOBLE EAGLE and in support of numerous joint forces exercises at multiple locations throughout the world. Additionally, he deployed to Bagram AB, Afghanistan to support OPERATION ENDURING FREEDOM as an Intel Officer assigned to International Security Assistance Force/Special Operations Force (ISAF/SOF). Furthermore, he deployed to Al Dhafra AB, United Arab Emirates in support of the Combined Defense of the Gulf, OPERATION RESOLUTE SUPPORT, and OPERATION INHERENT RESOLVE. Finally, he served as the Team Lead for 856 Cyber Protection Team during the 127COS first six-month activation in support of OPERATION GLADIATOR PHOENIX.
