Welcome to Souda Bay Crete, Greece. Crete is the largest and most populous of the Greek Islands. It lies in the southern frontier of Europe. Crete was the center of Europe's first advanced civilization, the Minoans. Here, you can explore glorious beaches, impressive mountainscapes, fertile valleys, steep gorges, and become part of the island's rich gastronomic culture. The city of Chania (pronounced Hania) is approximately 10 miles from the installation.

The NSA Souda Bay installation, is located on the Akrotiri peninsula. It is hosted by the 115th ACW of the Hellenic Air Force and requires base access be granted through the Visitor Control Center.

The Passenger Terminal Staff wish to make your military air travel a pleasant & memorable experience. Please supply feedback on our performance by using ICE or the comment cards located in the terminal. Your comments are appreciated and help us to improve AMC and Navy customer service throughout the world.
