

BIOGRAPHY

UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

MS. SAVANNAH HEWETT

Ms. Savannah Hewett is an Air Mobility Command Public Affairs Specialist within Civic Engagements, Headquarters Air Mobility Command, Scott Air Force Base, Ill. In this role, she advises and supports the Public Affairs Director, AMC commander and staff, on community engagement initiatives to foster the command's relationship with local communities at all AMC installations. Ms. Hewett also serves as the key advisor to AMC installation Public Affairs offices on their community relations programs to build advocacy for their Airmen, families, and mission.

Prior to her role as an AMC public affairs specialist in Civic Engagements, Ms. Hewett previously served as the Executive Assistant to the director of Air Mobility Command Public Affairs where she was responsible for originating and providing final review on a variety of public affairs products including stories, social media posts, visual information, and email correspondence with high-level internal and external customers. Additionally, she assisted the director in meeting critical deadlines; arranged engagements with senior leaders, members of the media, community leaders and other stakeholders.

Ms. Hewett is a dedicated humanitarian with 16 years of experience carrying out a wide range of public affairs elements to include media operations, social media, community engagement, command information, communication planning, special event planning, security, and public affairs resource management in support of the mission and the commander's priorities. She has been recognized for maintaining the highest standards of work, meticulous attention to detail, and a strong sense of responsibility and is especially skilled at bridging military communities with civilian counterparts, fostering trust, and cultivating lasting networks to address evolving mission needs effectively.
