

COUNTY COMMISSIONER STEPHANIE WISE BIO:

Born and raised in the Goddard area, Stephanie Wise and her husband Brandt were high school sweethearts who are now proudly raising their two kids, Lauren and Chandler, in the same school district where they grew up.

Stephanie has more than 10 years' experience in the commercial real estate industry. She is the president and owner of Commercial Collective and previously managed over 1 million square feet of commercial real estate in the Wichita metro area. Stephanie is a past president of Women in Commercial Real Estate and Dress for Success Wichita (now Women's Network) and a past member of Sedgwick County's District 3 Citizens Advisory Board. She has also earned recognition as WBJ's 40 under 40, Women Who Lead, Emerging Leaders and Leadership Wichita.

Beyond her professional capacity, Stephanie is actively involved in her local community and church, serving as a Sunday preschool teacher. Now, as a Sedgwick County Commissioner, Stephanie wants to expand and improve the high quality of life our community enjoys. She is committed to fostering a culture that incentivizes economic growth, lower taxation and support for first responders.
