UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

MAJOR NEAL K. GUPTA

Maj Neal K. Gupta is the Speechwriter for the Commander, Headquarters Air Mobility Command (AMC) Scott AFB, Illinois. As the General's direct correspondent, Maj Gupta drafts compelling narratives that articulate the commander's vision and strategic priorities for AMC. He researches complex issues, translating them into clear and impactful messaging for diverse audiences, both internal and external to the Department of Defense. Maj Gupta's work ensures the General's voice resonates with authority and inspires confidence in the command's mission of global reach relative to Airmen, Mission, and Commitment.

Maj Gupta graduated from the State University of New York at Albany, earning his commission through the Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps, Detachment 550, at the Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in Troy, New York in May 2015. He has served in a variety of assignments in operational wings, joint, the private sector, and the Major Command. Prior to his current assignment, he was the Chief for the Innovations Branch and the Deputy Chief for the Logistics Operations Branch at Headquarters AMC.
