

Jonathan Spencer
317th Maintenance Squadron Honorary Commander

Jonathan Spencer, born in Michigan, at the age of three months moved to Abilene, Texas where he would grow up on Dyess AFB. Graduating locally from Cooper High and Abilene Christian University, Jonathan has used his entrepreneurial spirit to start and partner with local Abilene businesses. Jonathan is currently President of Armament Shield: Germ Killer, president of Streamline Audits, and Marketing Director of ProfitMax Chemical. Jonathan also splits his time with several non profits including Founder of Abilene Hockey, Advisory Board of Beyond Trafficking, and Executive Director of the Southwest Collegiate Hockey League. Married with 3 children, Jonathan calls Beltway Park church home and spends time serving within his church community while growing his family here in Abilene, Texas.