

Kyle McVey

317th Operations Group Honorary Commander

Mr. McVey is the Honorary Commander for the 317th Operations Group. Kyle joined First Financial in 2011 following two years with KPMG LLP in Jacksonville, Florida. He currently serves as the Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer for the Company. His responsibilities include financial reporting, external and internal audit, investor relations and assisting in various other roles across the Company and reports to the Chief Financial Officer. He is co-chairman of First Financial's Customer Service First program and was instrumental in organizing the Company's Day of Service initiative, which was awarded the Texas Bankers Association's Cornerstone Award for outstanding community involvement.

Mr. McVey holds bachelor degrees in accounting and finance and a masters in accounting from Abilene Christian University, is a licensed CPA, and a graduate of the Southwestern Graduate School of Banking at Southern Methodist University (SWGSB). While attending SWGSB, he was a two-time winner of the James B. Gardner Commerce Street Capital Scholarship, which recognizes participants who attain the highest level of academic achievement and best represent the educational ideals of merit and leadership. In addition, he was also recognized as valedictorian of his SWGSB class.

Mr. McVey has served on various local community and non-profit boards and is a current member of the Military Affairs Committee. Over the last 3 years, Kyle has served as the Honorary Commander for the 40th Airlift Squadron.