

Luke Roberson

317th Operations Support Squadron Honorary Commander

Luke is an Abilene Native. He married his high school sweetheart, Heather, and together they have three beautiful daughters: Paige (15), Brooklyn (13), and Morgan (8). He is currently the External Affairs Manager for AEP Texas, the subsidiary of the national electric utility 'American Electric Power.'

Luke is very active in the community- having served on many non-profit boards in the Abilene area. He even danced for Hendrick Home for Children's "Dancing with the Abilene Stars" this year. Luke was previously named as an Abilene Chamber of Commerce 'Top 20 Under 40' recipient. Luke proudly serves as an Honorary Commander for the 317 OSS at Dyess AFB.

Luke grew up hearing his grandfather tell stories of his 22-year career in the Army and has appreciated those in uniform ever since. His brother-in-law is currently serving the USAF at Ramstein Air Base, Germany. While he enjoys serving the greater Abilene community, his deepest passion is serving those in the military. He is the founder of the 'DY Dove Hunt.' The 'DY Dove Hunt' is a free dove hunt for active-duty Airmen serving at Dyess each September. He is a champion of all things Dyess and does his best to serve those in his squadron, and outside of it to better the lives of Airmen.
