

Air Mobility Command/Patriot Express Information For OCONUS Travel during COVID-19

Information

- USTRANSCOM will administer rapid COVID testing of Marines and dependents traveling to OCONUS locations starting in November for Patriot Express flights departing CONUS Aerial Ports of Embarkation (APOE) (Locations: Baltimore (BWI)/Seattle (SEATAC)).
- Upon arrival at APOE, if you test positive, you will be required to isolate/quarantine for 14 days. The following steps will be taken upon a positive confirmed test:
  - You will inform your gaining command that you have tested positive and are unable to travel on the scheduled flight. If gaining command is unavailable, you will contact your losing command to assist in contacting gaining command.
  - You will be transported by Air Mobility Command (AMC) personnel to a Medical Treatment Facility for follow-on evaluation/testing.
  - You will be transported by AMC to Restriction of Movement (ROM) location for 14 days, which will be a Military or Civilian Temporary Lodging Facility. AMC will also provide follow-on transportation back to APOE when cleared for travel.
  - You will be placed in a ROM status and will be considered Awaiting Transportation (AT) status during isolation/quarantine and you are entitled to lodging, per diem, and incidentals. Travelers and their dependents, if applicable will be paid per diem as advised during your Permanent Change of Station (PCS) counseling.
  - You should immediately contact the applicable DMO once you learn that you are delayed enroute to ensure that you are rebooked and have a seat on the AMC-PE once you are cleared for onward movement:
    - If you are departing from Baltimore (BWI) contact MCB Camp Lejeune DMO at 910-451-2255 or 910-451-2714.
    - If you are departing from Seattle (SEATAC) contact MCB Camp Pendleton DMO at 760-725-8637 or 760-725-8631.
  - In accordance with MARADMIN 333/20, your report date does not need to be modified as the gaining command will capture the new report date on the reporting endorsement.
- In accordance within MARADMIN 373/20 and MCO 4600.40B, you are authorized to utilize their Government Travel Charge Card (GTCC) for all official travel expenses.
  - Official travel expenses include: Lodging and Meals only (Reimbursable Expenses)
  - If you do NOT have a GTCC, you will contact your gaining command in order to coordinate the payment of ROM lodging with local DMO or PAC.
